

Let's talk legal...

A series of free talks presented by qualified legal professionals from Macarthur Legal Centre, Campbelltown

Program of events for 2017

- Elder law issues: Wills, financial management and guardianship

The importance of planning ahead and what you need to consider. What happens if you don't leave a will? If you lose capacity, who will make decisions for you?

Seniors Week
Thursday 9 March, 2pm
HJ Daley Library, Campbelltown

- Free legal advice clinic for young adults

Free legal advice, bookings essential. Assistance with a range of issues such as bills, fines, ill treatment at work or school, as well as assisting victims of violence, problems with tenancy and share houses, and complaints regarding service providers.

Youth Week
Wednesday 5 April, 3.30pm to 6pm
Greg Percival Library, Ingleburn

- Debt: Having trouble paying your bills, fines or loans?

This talk covers all areas of debt and options you have if you are in debt. It includes fighting a debt, information on financial hardship, State Debt Recovery, Ombudsman's services and debt agreements, as well as information on bankruptcy.

Wednesday 21 June, 6pm
HJ Daley Library, Campbelltown

- Wills for everyone

Everyone needs to have a will. This talk covers the importance of planning ahead and what you need to consider. What happens if you don't leave a will? If you lose capacity, who will make decisions for you? Who gets your super, insurance, property, children and pets if something happens to you?

Wednesday 23 August, 6pm
HJ Daley Library, Campbelltown

- Legal issues for people with disabilities and mental health problems - a talk for carers

Carers, guardianship and decision making. Financial management and planning ahead. Information on the roles of the NSW Civil and Administrative and Mental Health Review Tribunals.

Thursday 19 October, 10.30am
Greg Percival Community Hall, Ingleburn

These talks are free.
Bookings
essential.

For more information, phone:

HJ Daley Library
4645 4444
Greg Percival Library
4645 4060

Glenquarie Library
4645 4055
Eagle Vale Library
4645 4266

MACARTHUR
Legal Centre
Supporting our community