

Let's talk legal...

A series of free talks presented by qualified legal professionals from Macarthur Legal Centre, Campbelltown

Program of events for 2018

Wills, Power of Attorney and Enduring Guardianship (Senior's Week)

The importance of planning ahead and what you need to consider. Information on Wills and what they are. Does everyone need a Will and what can be put in one? What are Power of Attorney and Enduring Guardianship documents? What are the effects of such documents?

Thursday 5 April
2pm to 4pm
HJ Daley Library, Campbelltown

HSC Legal Studies Seminar

An overview of the HSC Legal Studies course, including a question and answer session with one of Macarthur Legal Centre's experienced senior solicitors, covering anything related to the law and legal practice. Practical examples using case studies demonstrating the law in practice.

Wednesday 6 June
6pm to 8pm
HJ Daley Library, Campbelltown

Wills for everyone

Highlighting the importance of planning ahead and what you need to consider. What happens if you don't leave a Will? Who will make decisions for you if you lose capacity? Who will receive your superannuation, insurance, property, children and pets if something happens to you?

Wednesday 15 August
5.30pm to 7pm
Eagle Vale Library

Legal issues for people with disability and mental health problems – a talk for carers

Focusing on carers, guardianship and decision making when managing finances and planning ahead, including information on the roles of the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal and the Mental Health Review Tribunal.

Tuesday 2 October
2pm to 4pm
Greg Percival Community Hall, Ingleburn

Tenant rights and Tenancy Agreements

Know your rights and responsibilities as a tenant – before you sign your agreement, for the duration of your tenancy, and after your tenancy is terminated. Learn about where you can get advice on your tenancy issues and be linked with various support services.

Wednesday 14 November
11am to 1pm
HJ Daley Library, Campbelltown

These talks are free. Bookings essential.
